MISSION REPORT

WEST LAKES

TUESDAY 26 JANUARY 2010

A good day was had for the National Sail Day for Fleet Base Gulf Waters, with fine weather & a slight southwest breeze across the lake (West Lakes).

Unfortunately only two vessels actually made it into the water, HMA Ships Parramatta & Vampire, but several others were on static display throughout the day.

We had quite a few interested spectators watching, so hopefully some new members may come of it.

Report: Jim Warren, images Graham Donnell

Well prepared for a day's run, with USS Fife and HMAS Tobruk on static display

Warner Van Laatum's partially completed HMS Hood, scratch built from timber

Scott Rice's Anzac class frigate, HMAS Parramatta, still building but out on the water

Spruance class destroyer USS Fife on static display

Jim's almost completed HMAS Vampire, surely amongst the most popular of model subjects
